LIBRARY NEWS

ONE BOOK for All

If you didn't have a chance to make it to the launch, you can still join until late-July. This program is open to all ages and you'll receive a free copy of the book when joining. The book, The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind by William Kamkwamba, is a true story about turning junkyard scraps into a windmill and bringing electricity & water to his African village.

We will be having additional ONE BOOK events during the summer, check the back for exact dates & times.

Library Survey

The library is working on a new five-year strategic plan and we need your input! The survey can be found on our website or in the library near the Circulation Desk and will be available until Wednesday, July 19th.

New Programs

Check out our calendar in the fall for new monthly programs. Based on patron requests, we'll be adding a BYOB (Bring Your Own Book) Group, a Memory Café, and more mini computer classes.

BOOKS & BITS

Upcoming releases from some of your favorite authors!

Glass Houses by Louise Penny. The 13th book in her Chief Inspector Gamache mystery series. August 29

Killing England by Bill O'Reilly & Martin Dugard. The latest in their Killing series, readers are transported to the Revolutionary War. September 19

Right Time by Daniel Steel. A rewarding novel about pursuing one's passion and succeeding beyond one's wildest dreams. August 29

Don't Let Go by Harlan Coben. A thriller that explores the big secrets and little lies that can destroy a relationship, a family, and even a town. September 26
